NOTICE

There is sure going to be a shortage of Buick Automobiles this season, owing to scarcity of labor and all materials, together with slow transportation, and in view of these conditions, if you are considering purchasing one of these cars you should give your order at once, if you would be sure of a satisfactory delivery.

I have been buying and storing this past winter all the Buick Cars which I could possibly obtain and can now offer for immediate delivery a few cars of both Roadster and Touring models.

When these cars are sold, I will be unable to promise definite delivery.

Better give me your order and take delivery while you are sure of obtaining it.

Improvements in anticipation of the opening of the baseball season to-morrow are under way at the Berlin street park, where new sections of fence are to be erected and the grandstand painted. At a considerable outlay the I. A. C. management has graded the playing field, putting it into excellent condition, albeit the work has been retarded by the prevalence of wet weather. A flag pole is to be erected in center field and appropriate flag-raising exercises will be a feature of one of the early games.

A silver watch with a hunting case which was carried through the bloodiest battles of the Crimean war in 1854-56 is the interesting relic which Gordon Watson of Cottage street is treasuring. The timepiece, a product of the noted watch factories at Basingstoke, Hampshire, England, was carried by the present owner's grandfather, whose regiment figured in three great encounters, including the battles of Alma and Inkermann and the siege of Sebastopol, which had the effect of ending the war. When the lever of the front case began to balk, the soldier of the Crimean removed from the silver face a disc and proceeded to work with his pocket knife the figures around the disc, thus doing away with the necessity of springing the case whenever he wished to know the time. It is a "key winder," as old watch jockeys say, but Mr. Watson sets a store by its faithfulness as an accurate reporter of the swift flight of time.

All Foresters attached to St. John's court, No. 522, C. O. F., who have enlisted in the military or naval branches of the United States service and all others who may serve in either branch before the war ends are exempt from dues as the result of action taken at the regular fortnightly meeting of the court last evening. With one accord members evidenced their patriotism by acclaiming a motion which authorizes the court to maintain in good standing every Forester who shall serve his country in the field or on the sea. The action taken is in line with a move made by the state organizations of a number of fraternalities, but cases where the initiative was taken by the local courts are few. At the same meeting the members voted to participate in a joint observance of the order's 34th anniversary at the capital May 24. Barre, Graniteville and Montpelier courts will meet for a banquet, to be followed by initiation and an appropriate program.

From the Boulder (Colo.) Daily Camera of May 4 is taken the following: Funeral services for Mrs. Kathryn Wells Parmeter, wife of I. D. Parmeter, were held at her late home, 803 Maple avenue, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. R. H. Forrester of the Methodist church officiating. Mr. Forrester paid tribute to the life of Mrs. Parmeter during her residence in Boulder, where she had made a great many friends, who will mourn her loss. A quartet, consisting of Messrs. Piper, Collins, Shufelt and Tippetts, sang two hymns, "Lead Kindly Light" and "The Reaper and the Flowers." There was a profusion of beautiful flowers.

The bearers were W. C. Cartwright, John Wehrle, Philip Norville and James Sweden. Burial was in Columbia cemetery. Among those from out of town to attend the funeral were Mrs. Charles Marr, Mrs. Annie Nichol, Miss Margaret Nichol and Mrs. Agnes Seabury of Denver and Miss Jean MacDonal of Colorado Springs.
